

NO

“No” to war ,
no to the end of the world
which isn't very far away.

“No” to bombs ,
”no” to nuclear weapons,
“no” to that piece of @”$ that our earth is becoming.

“No” to the U.S.A.
because their politics are not O.K.
“No” to my rage
that I share with many young people my age.

“No” to “No”.

No to hunger, no to natural disasters.
“No” to people who drive that big fat “Hummer”,
when I see them I could laugh my ass off.

“No” to that negative poem, no to writing much longer
because the world is stronger.
